

COI Declaration

To the Japanese Journal of Veterinary Dermatology

In submitting the below-mentioned paper to the Japanese Journal of Veterinary Dermatology, the official journal of the Japanese Society of Veterinary Dermatology, the authors hereby declare with respect to whether there existed during the last one year a conflict of interest (“COI”) with the companies, organizations or other parties that are concerned with the publication of the paper.

Title of the paper

First Author

Date of declaration

Name: (signature)

Corresponding author (if not the same as the first author)

Date of declaration

Name: (signature)

Category (To be declared if the amount concerned is more than or equal to 1 million yen per company or organization)	Whether or not COI existed	If yes, provide names of authors and companies/organizations concerned.
(1) Compensation	Yes / No
(2) Gain from shares	Yes / No
(3) Patent royalty	Yes / No
(4) Lecture fee	Yes / No
(5) Manuscript fee	Yes / No
(6) Research/aid funding	Yes / No
(7) Scholarship/fellowship endowment	Yes / No
(8) Enrollment as a lecturer for lecturers sponsored by businesses etc.	Yes / No
(9) Receipt of travel expenses, gifts, etc.	Yes / No

This COI declaration will be retained for two years after the publication of the said paper. If the declaration contains any false statement willfully made, appropriate actions may be made including retracting the publication and announcing it in the Journal.